ADVANCING TECHNOLOGY WOMEN

JOIN US!

MARCH 24, 2017 · 9AM – 12PM

Become a more innovative & competitive business

Being able to retain and advance top talent is key to your competitive advantage – but are there unintended roadblocks for women and other individuals?

This will benefit you if:

- You are responsible for hiring technical employees including Information & Communications Technology (ICT) and/or Science, Technology, Engineering, Math (STEM) workers
- You are an organization in trades, manufacturing, construction, natural resources, services, or ICT
- Having a diverse and inclusive workforce is important to you
- You would like to network with other organizations interested in Diversity & Inclusion
- Providing equal opportunities for advancing and retaining key performers is critical to your business
